Product License Addendum(s):

Progress Software Corporation ('PSC') License Addendum

License Notice:

Entering the control codes listed on this license addendum into the computer system indicates your understanding and acceptance of the terms and conditions contained in the End User Product License Agreement ("the Agreement") located in this package, in the software download program, on the inside cover of the media box, in the "Read this First" book, or in the "Welcome to Progress" book. Please carefully read these terms and conditions before entering in the control codes. If you do not agree with them, promptly return the media (all copies thereof) to Progress Software Corporation or the supplier from whom it was acquired for a full refund. The Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties. No modifications or additions to the Agreement will be binding, whether proposed via a purchase order or otherwise, unless agreed to in a writing executed by authorized representatives of the parties. The information below reflects Progress' current records. Please verify and report any discrepancies to your supplier.
